Verse	Summary	Purpose
'Twas brillig, and the slithy toves            Did gyre and gimble in the wabe:            All mimsy were the borogoves,            And the mome raths outgrabe.	Life is going on            Creatures do things they normally do	Set the scene
“Beware the Jabberwock, my son!            The jaws that bite, the claws that catch!            Beware the Jubjub bird, and shun            The frumious Bandersnatch!”	Warning from father to son            A monster endangers the village?	Present the problem – the            Quest is given
He took his vorpal sword in hand;            Long time the manxome foe he sought—            So rested he by the Tumtum tree            And stood awhile in thought.	The son hunts the Jabberwock            It takes a long time to find it so he has to rest	Hero searches for enemy
And, as in uffish thought he stood,            The Jabberwock, with eyes of flame,            Came whiffling through the tulgey wood,            And burbled as it came!	The son is confronted by the Jabberwock	Hero is confronted by his            enemy
One, two! One, two! And through and through            The vorpal blade went snicker-snack!            He left it dead, and with its head            He went galumphing back.	The son kills the Jabberwock and cuts off his head	The enemy is vanquished
“And hast thou slain the Jabberwock?            Come to my arms, my beamish boy!            O frabjous day! Callooh! Callay!”            He chortled in his joy.	The father asks the son if he has succeeded in killing            the Jabberwock and he rejoices	The hero returns
'Twas brillig, and the slithy toves            Did gyre and gimble in the wabe:            All mimsy were the borogoves,            And the mome raths outgrabe.	Life is going on            Creatures do things they normally do	Everything returns to normal            Signals the end
