

Fine Motor Math Activity

You can use number cards or just write numbers 1-5 or 1-10 on a piece of recyclable cardboard or piece of paper.

This Number activity is the perfect activity for strengthening children's fingers. It helps children to practise counting and number recognition. The challenge of using pegs encourages children to practise opening and closing the pegs and this is a good fine motor workout!

