

Whistle Straws

The ability to blow is essential for sound production. These skills help create the vowel sounds. For a fun game, the child can use the straw to blow various sized pom poms or plastic balls. The larger the pom pom or balls, the harder it is to blow. AT beginning, have the child practising blowing the smallest pom poms or balls without using the straw.

