

Countries of Europe

Lesson 3

LO: To identify key facts about Europe and European countries.

Recall: Find the missing answers.

Correctly identify all the countries in Europe.

Use the map to help you locate them.

Green is _____

Orange - _____

Dark blue - _____

Austria - _____

Italy - _____

Germany - _____

Great Britain - _____

You will need access to a computer, phone, atlas or laptop to find the following answers.

Population and inhabitants.

Definition - all the inhabitants of a particular place.

- The current population of Europe is 747,879,218 as of Tuesday, January 12, 2021, based on the latest United Nations estimates.
- Europe's population is equivalent to 9.78% of the total world population.
- Europe ranks number 3 among populated regions of the world.

Question 1. What is the current population of Great Britain?

Question 2. How does it compare to the population of France?

Languages spoken in Europe and European countries.

There are 24 official languages in Europe... but there are actually more than 200 languages spoken on the continent.

English is still the most spoken language in the EU by far, with German now spoken by 36% of citizens and French spoken by 29% of the EU's new smaller population of 446 million people.

Italian comes fourth at 18%, followed by 17% for Spanish.

Question 3. What are the top 5 most spoken languages in Europe?

Question 4. Which is the hardest European language to learn?

Question 5. What percentage of German and French people speak English?

Question 6. How many official languages are spoken in Europe?

7. What is the population of Europe?
8. Why is the population of Europe surprising?
9. Which European countries have the largest and smallest population?
10. What is Europe's and the world's most northerly capital city?
11. What are the three main types of languages spoken in Europe?
12. Which language is spoken by most Europeans as either their first or second language?
13. Find 3 more interesting facts about the inhabitants of Europe.

<https://www.kids-world-travel-guide.com/europe-facts.html>

