

Letters & Sounds with Pop

This is Pop

Pop is a little white mouse.

She can be a little bit naughty and sometimes she does silly things but she is here to help us with our Phonics.

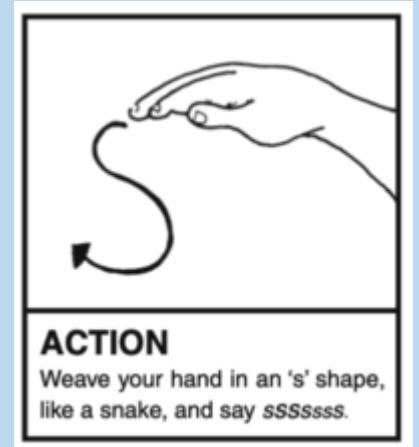

First Pop would like us to think about the letters and sounds we have learned.

She wants to make sure we can remember the name of each of the letters and the sound that letter makes.

Let's make a start:

My name is . . . and my sound is . . .

Next Pop wants us to learn about digraphs.

A digraph is when we put two letters together to make a new sound.

Let's make a start:

Here are two letters that make one sound:

ch

Action

Pretend to be a steam train moving arms like the piston rods, saying ch,ch,ch.

Here are two letters that make one sound:

o a

Action

Bring hand up to mouth as if seeing something go wrong, and say oh!.

Now Pop wants us to learn about trigraphs.

A trigraph is when we put three letters together to make a new sound.

Let's make a start:

Here are three letters that make one sound:

igh

Here are three letters that make one sound:

ear

Here are three letters that make one sound:

air

Here are three letters that make one sound:

ure

Now we have learned all the sounds and all the digraphs and trigraphs that we need to be able to read.

Next Pop wants us to push some sound buttons to read some new words.

We use sound buttons to help us to sound out new words then blend the sounds to read the word.

Let's make a start:

pain

main

see bee free

fight

might

hoot

Pop wants us to read some CVCC or CCVCC words.

These are words that have a consonant, then a vowel, then two consonants.

The vowels are:

a e i o u

The consonants are all the other letters in the alphabet.

Let's have a look:

Pop wants us to practise our tricky words.

Tricky words are words in English that we can't sound out. We just need to know them.

Let's make a start:

Tricky words . . .

we

Tricky words . . .

have

Tricky words . . .

all

Tricky words . . .

you

Tricky words . . .

her

Tricky words . . .

are

Pop wants us to learn two new tricky words today.

Let's have a look:

Tricky words . . .

said

Tricky words . . .

so

Read the first sentence together then write a sentence in your Phonics book:

Pop said "We must have wind for the ship to sail."

Pop and Duck can sail the ship with the wind.

Pop said "There is so much wind today."
