

Nim's Island

Friday 22nd January

Before your teacher gives you feedback on your writing, it is important that you self-assess.

That means to consider what is good about your work and what could be better.

You will need to be thoughtful and honest.

Writing Conference Sheet - Key Stage 2

Name of Child _____ Date _____

Writing Genre: A story extract in the style of Wendy ~~Over~~ (Jinns Island)

Audience and Purpose: - What was the purpose of the writing? Why? Who was the intended audience? Have you achieved your purpose and reached your audience?

Authors' Voice: - Can you show me where you have used ideas taken from the original author? How is your writing similar?

Favourite Parts/Strengths: - What are you ~~really proud~~ of in this work? Why? What are the strangest parts of your writing?

Literary and Grammar Features: - Can you show me examples of where you have used the features we looked at? Why did you use them there?

Improve and Target: - What would you change if you wrote this again? Why? Where do you think you could improve this writing? Why? What should we target next in your writing?

Spelling and Presentation aspects: -

Use this sheet to self-assess your writing.

If there is an adult at home you can talk to, this will help - you can show them what features you used in your writing.

In this section, give yourself a mark out of 10 for presentation.

If there are any spellings you're still not sure about, you could use an online dictionary to check. There's one built into Google - just type 'dictionary' in the address bar.
