

Nim's Island

Phase 2 Day 7

By Wendy Orr

12.1.21

RECALL:

How do we know when the author switches from first person to third person?

LEARNING LADDER AND FEATURES:

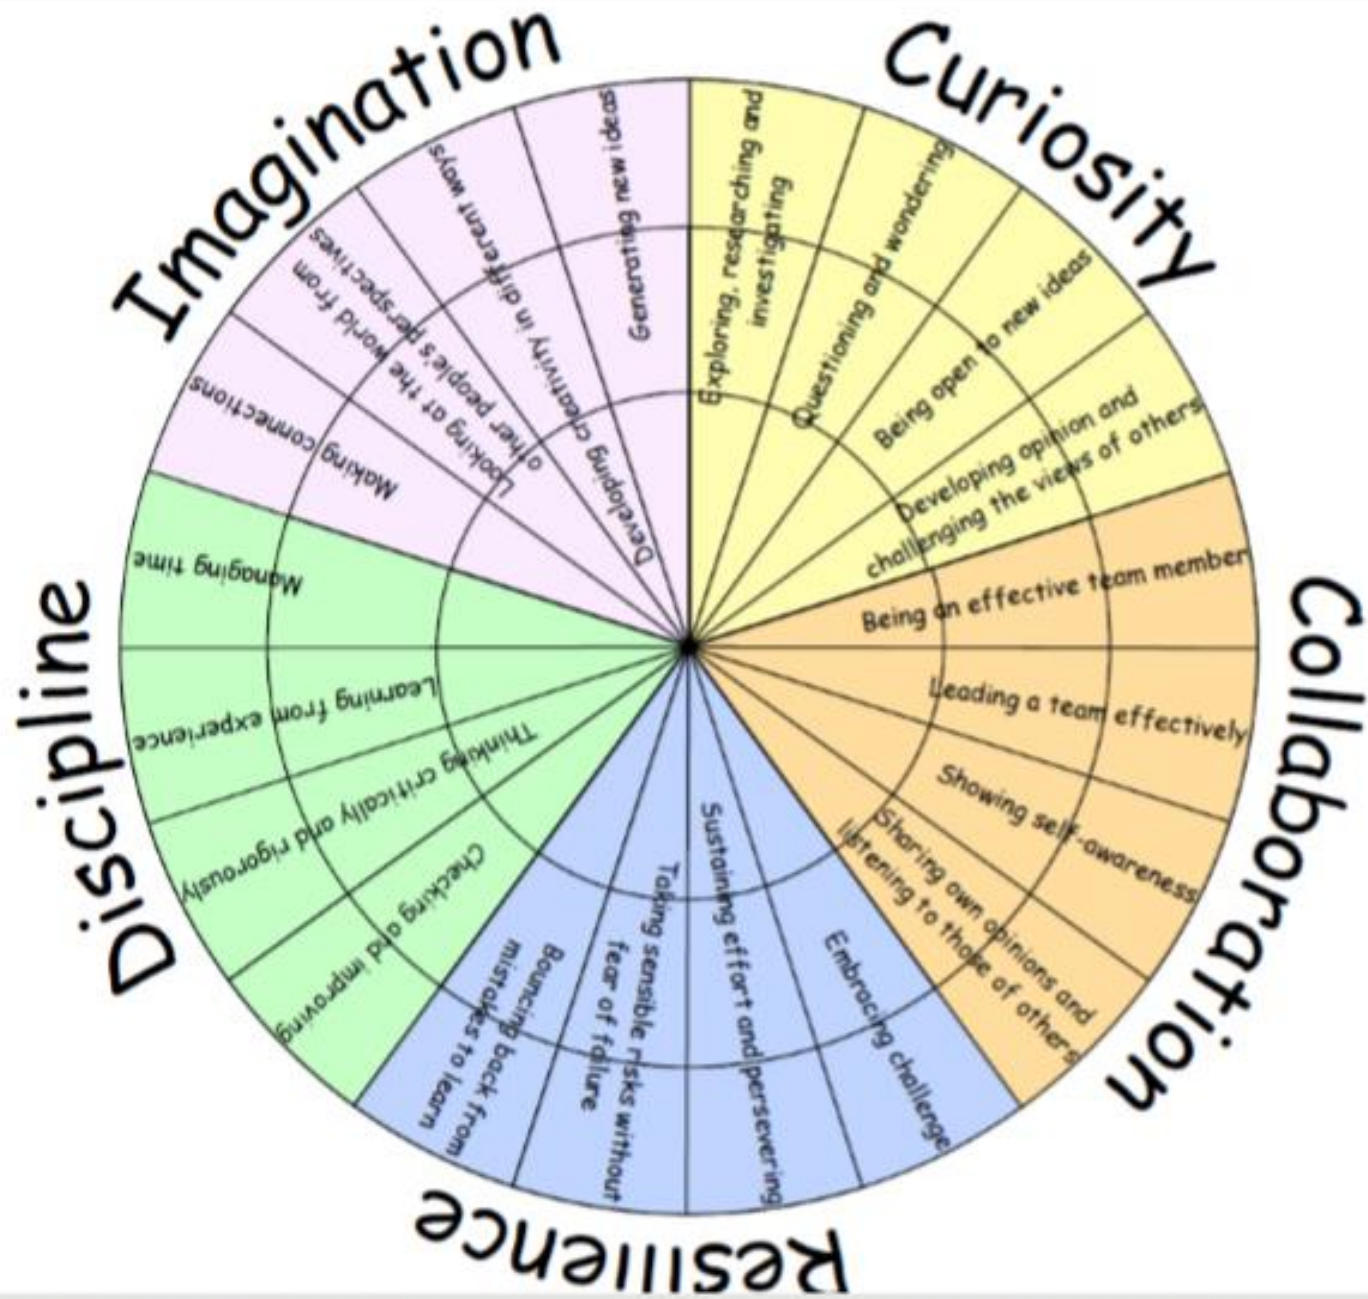

Writing - Purposeful targets - page 8

I can use some of the key features for a given style to ensure that the style of writing is evident.

FEATURES:

Ellipses

First person narration

LEARNING HABITS:

Which learning habits do you think we will need to use today?

IDENTIFY:

You can't hammer two coconuts together, she decided, but if I had a thin piece of board... and lined the coconuts in rows... I could hammer a nail through the board and into the coconuts.

EXAMINE:

You can't hammer two coconuts together, she decided, but if I had a thin piece of board... and lined the coconuts in rows... I could hammer a nail through the board and into the coconuts.

PRACTISE:

Can you identify where it would be suitable to add in ellipses to show the character is piecing it together?

If I plug this cable in the bottom and then try pressing the power switch it should have enough electricity to turn on!

PRACTISE:

Can you identify where it would be suitable to add in ellipses to show the character is piecing it together?

If I plug this cable in the bottom... and then try pressing the power switch... it should have enough electricity to turn on!

APPLY THE FEATURE:

Try to imagine you are finding a solution to something. It could be you have just discovered column addition. What would the thought process be for adding a 2 digit number to a two digit number? How would you use ellipses to show the pauses?