

We all went on Safari

Phase 2 Day 3

By Laurie Krebs
and
Julia Cairns

FLUENCY: Collaborate to identify the rhyming words in the text

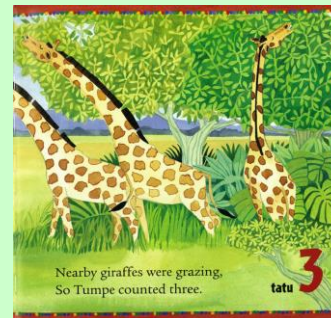

We all went on safari,
When the day had just
We spied a lonely leopard.
Arusha counted one.

We all went on safari,
Over the grasslands damp with
We came across some ostriches,
And Mosi counted two.

We all went on safari,
Past an old acacia
Nearby giraffes were grazing,
So Tumpe counted

FLUENCY: Collaborate to identify the rhyming words in the text

We all went on safari,
To the ancient crater floor.
We heard some lordly lions.
Mwambe counted

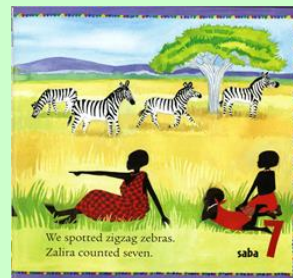

We all went on safari,
Where the lake birds swim and dive.
Up bobbed some hefty hippos.
Akeyla counted

We all went on safari,
Among herds that intermix.
We followed woolly wildebeests.
Watande counted

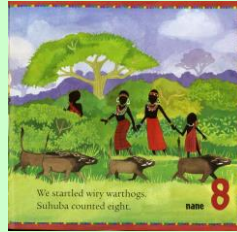

We all went on safari,
With the sun high in the heaven.
We spotted zigzag zebras.
Zalira counted

LEARNING LADDER AND SKILLS:

Big reader Page 16

Step 1 I can appreciate rhymes and poems and recite some by heart

Language Lover Page 10

Step 3 I can discuss what new words mean, linking their meanings to words I already know

Step 2 I can recognise repetition of language in my reading

Responder Page 13

Step 2 I can participate in discussions about what is read to me, taking turns and listening to what others say

SKILLS:

- Reading
- Thinking
- Collaborating

LEARNING HABITS:

Which learning habits do you think we will need to use today?

EXAMINE:

Let's try one together:

In the first verse we have one animal. The last word on the second line needs to rhyme with one.

Here are some words that rhyme with one: begun, gone, done, none, run, shun, son, spun, sun, ton, tonne, won...

This is the second line for the first verse in our poem:

When the day has just begun,

This is my second line :

When the day was done.

or

When the sun was gone.

Did you notice I replaced the words has just begun with was gone and day with sun?

EXAMINE:

Let's try one together:

This is the last line of the first verse:

Arusha counted one.

This is my version:

Alison counted one.

Did you notice I changed the name to Alison?

EXAMINE:

Let's try one together:

In the second verse we have two animals. The last word on the second line needs to rhyme with two.

Here are some words that rhyme with two: do, bleu flew, chew, drew, knew, crew, due, grew, glue, new, few...

This is the second line for the first verse in our poem:

Over the grasslands damp with dew,

This is my second line :

Over the mountains we knew,

Did you notice I changed grasslands damp with dew to mountains we knew?

EXAMINE:

Let's try one together:

These are the last two lines of the first verse:

And Mosi counted two.

This is my version:

And Patrick counted two.

Did you notice I changed the name to Patrick?

EXAMINE:

Let's try one together:

In the third verse we have three animals. The last word on the second line needs to rhyme with three.

Here are some words that rhyme with three: tree, bee, be, free, key, flea, knee, pea, plea, sea, tea...

This is the second line for the first verse in our poem:

Past an old acacia tree.

This is my second line :

Past the icebergs in the sea.

Did you notice I changed an old acacia tree to the icebergs in the sea?

EXAMINE:

Let's try one together:

These are the last two lines of the third verse:

So Tumpe counted three.

This is my version:

So Tugba counted three.

Did you notice I changed the name to Tugba?

PRACTISE

Your turn:

Change the next 2 verses? What rhymes with four? What rhymes with 5?

To the ancient crater floor.

Mwambe counted four.

Where the lake birds swim and dive.

Akeyla counted five.

Have a try.
