

We all went on a Safari

Phase 1 Day 3

By Laurie Krebs
and
Julia Cairns

We all went on safari,
When the day had just begun.

We spied a lonely leopard.
Arusha counted one.

moja 1

We all went on safari,
Over grasslands damp with dew.

We came across some ostriches,
And Mosi counted two.

READING FLUENCY: - Read the text through once

READING FLUENCY: - Read the text through once

Plains Zebra – punda milia (pun-dah mee-lee-ah)

Like humans have fingerprints, each zebra has its own special black-and-white pattern that helps to camouflage it at dawn and dusk, when lions are hunting.

TALKING TIME:

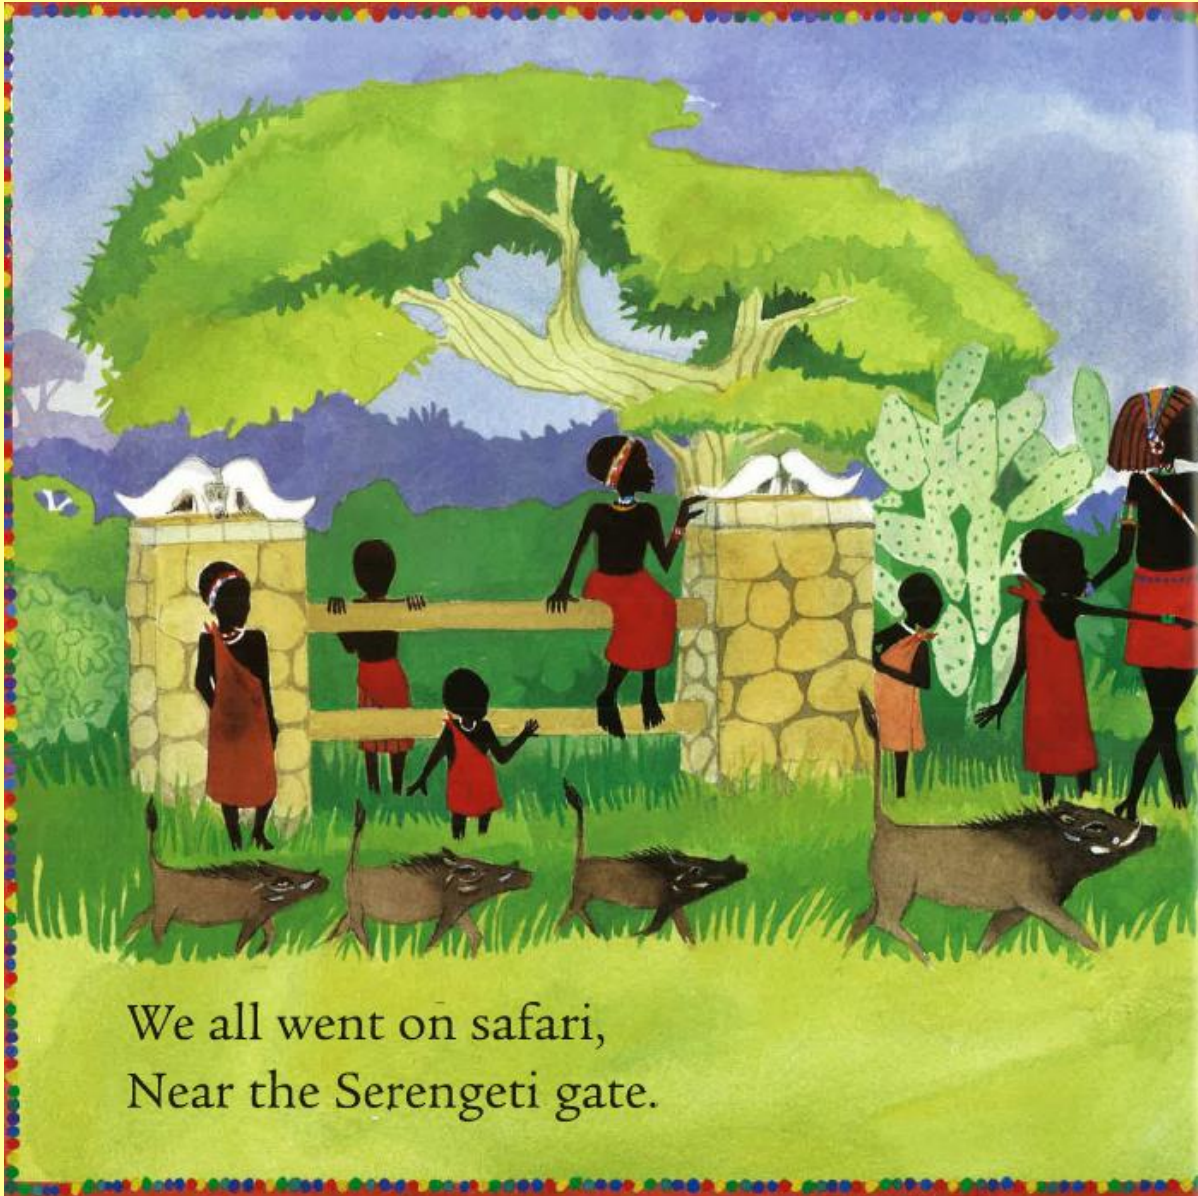

What can you remember?

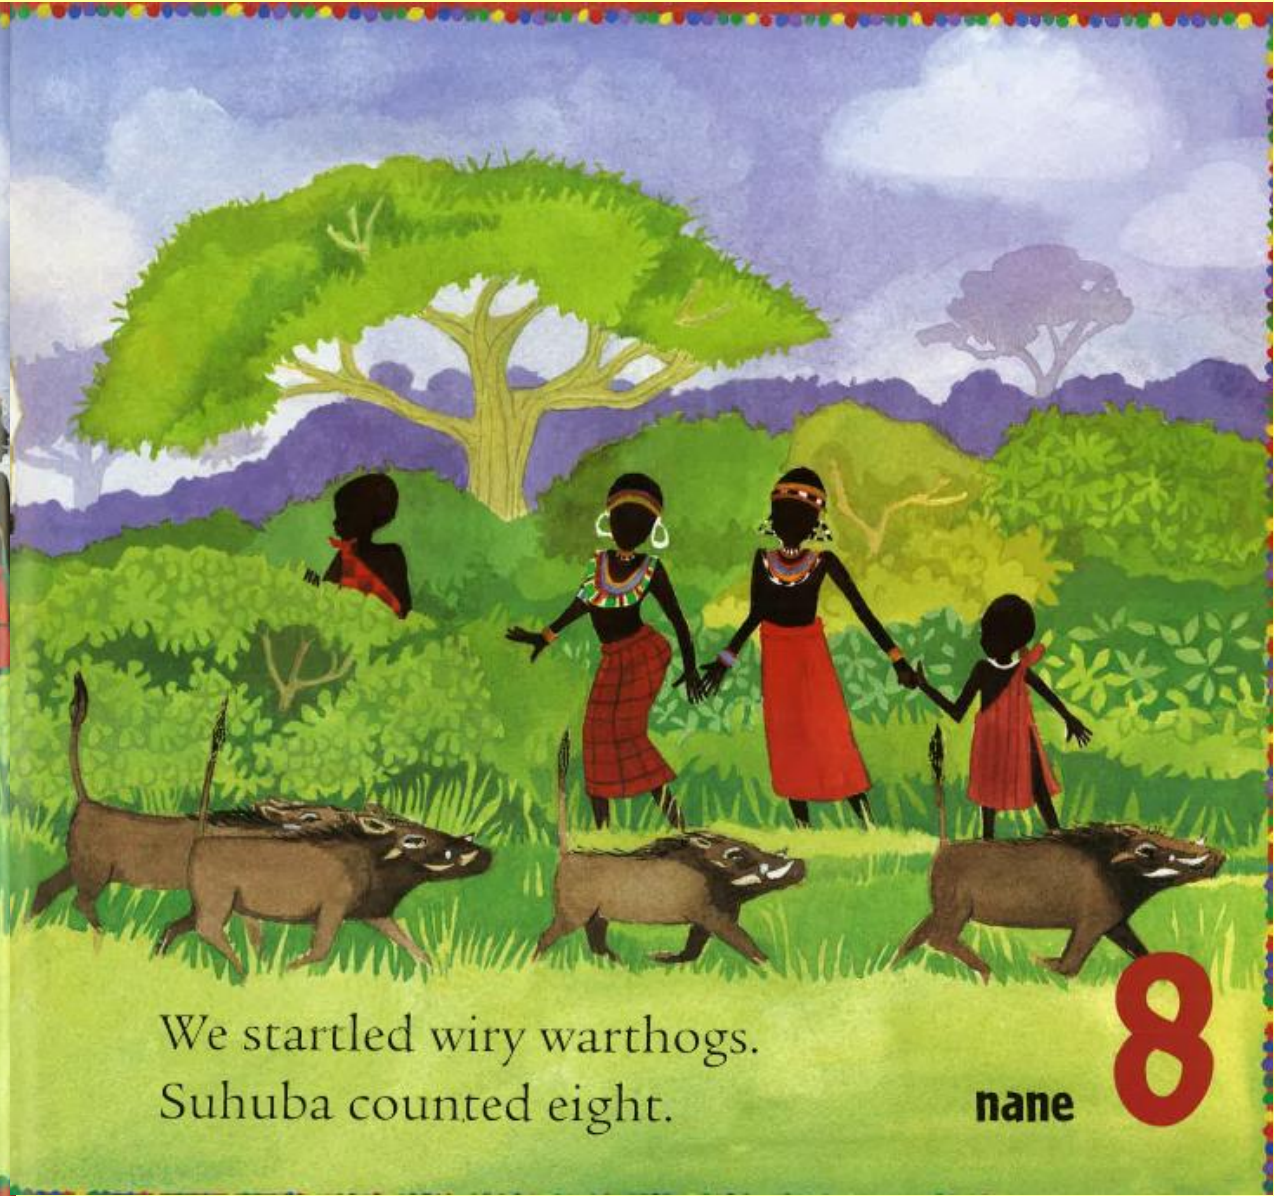

What does the author mean by 'the sun high in the heaven'?

Why do zebras have a black and white pattern?

READING FLUENCY: - Read the text through once

We all went on safari,
Near the Serengeti gate.

We startled wiry warthogs.
Suhuba counted eight.

Elephant —
tembo (tem-bo)
A mother elephant cares for her baby with surprising tenderness, keeping it hidden beneath her legs or tucked inside the group when the herd is on the move.

READING FLUENCY: - Read the text through once

We all went on safari,
In the sunset's fading light.

We built ourselves a campfire
And bid our friends "Good night".

TALKING TIME:

What was special about the place the children visited?
Tell your talk partner:

What is the hillside described as in the poem?

What did the children spot by the hillside?
