

An abstract background with a textured, painterly appearance. The colors transition from a light green on the left to a bright yellow in the upper center, then to a warm orange and finally a vibrant red and magenta on the right. The texture is reminiscent of a canvas or a fine-grained fabric.

Is it ok to be different?

---

PHILOSOPHY: LESSON 6

We are all different!

There are lots of people in the world, each one of them are different.

There's no one quite like you!

Can you think of some of the things that make us different?

Recap

---

Last week we focused on our families and created a family tree.

Let's have a look and discuss our families and how different they are.

What if we weren't different?

---

What is normal?

What would you consider is the normal way to act and think and dress?

Think about all the ways that we are different and imagine if we were all the same.

Thinking time

---

Can you think of any positives and negatives to being the same?

- What if we all dressed the same?
- What if we all lived in houses that were the same?
- What if we all had the same skin colour?
- What if we all disliked the same food?
- What if we all had the same hair colour?
- What if we all had the same job?

positives	negatives

Story time

---

https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=i\_Dum-OUpXg

Listen to this story called 'What if we all the same'

Can you write 3 ways in which you are different and proud?

- 1.
- 2.
- 3.

Final thoughts

The world would be boring if we were the same.

It is important to embrace differences and to be proud.

Is it ok that we are different?